CONTRIBUTIONS

1. Advise Your Junior

Scient Institute of Technology is home to a growing body of alumni from all walks of life, and the main objective of SNTI office of Development and Alumni relations is to continuously improve the standards of the institute.

We are particularly proud that many of our graduates hold positions of leadership in their respective profession. The main objective of this association are updating the young generation with the former students who are well settled in their close fields. Bringing together the alumni of the college by arranging frequent meetings or together with a view to exchange the latest developments in the field of engineering and technology. Arranging cultural, literacy and sports act. Assisting the campus recruitments, suitable placements and training for the students. On this site, you will find all the information to keep you .

2. Donate

Donations are welcome for the poor student's funds. Money given as a donation would be utilized for the text books and accessories of the children. Tuition covers only a small portion of the cost of the education that SNTI provides.

Our success in gaining recognition as an international leader in higher education has been made possible by the generous support of foundations, corporations, and most importantly, a growing community of alumni who care about the future of this very special Institute by giving gifts and donations to the needy people. Gifts to SNTI support financial aid and scholarships for the most deserving and needy students. They also allow us to recruit and retain the world's very best faculty, and to build and renovate state-of-the-art laboratories and classrooms. Contributions of every size make a difference. Make your gift today.
